

ELIEVE

AGREE

MOBILITY AND OPPORTUNITY

voters say economic mobility and OPPORTUNITY are likely to be more attainable for everyday Americans if the United States reduces the debt.

MIDDLE CLASS AGREE

CLASS AGREE

THERE WILL BE MORE OPPORTUNITIES FOR

TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN AN ECONOMY LESS BURDENED BY THE NATIONAL DEBT.

VOTERS WIDELY

ADDRESSING OUR LONG-TERM FISCAL CHALLENGES. BUSINESS &

of voters believe reducing the debt would increase companies' confidence in the economy, leading to more investment and hiring of new workers.

IF THE UNITED STATES REDUCES ITS NATIONAL DEBT.

COMPETITIVENESS &

INVESTMENTS IN OUR FUTURE

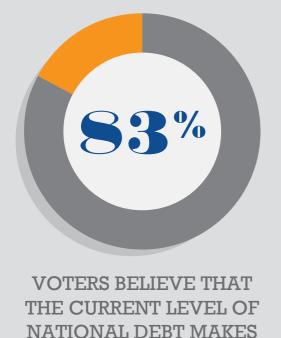

LESS MONEY TO SPEND ON EDUCATION, RESEARCH AND INFRASTRUCTURE AS A RESULT OF ITS DEBT BURDEN.

BELIEVE THAT THE UNITED STATES IS LIKELY TO BE MORE COMPETITIVE IN A GLOBAL ECONOMY IF IT

ECONOMIC STABILITY

THE STABILITY BROUGHT ON BY SOUND

NEXT ECONOMIC OR FISCAL POLICY WILL BE OUR ECONOMY LESS FINANCIAL CRISIS IF THE DEBT FELT DIRECTLY BY STABLE AMERICAN FAMILIES IS REDUCED

BETTER PREPARED FOR THE

Americans draw clear connections between our nation's fiscal health and economic strength. Voters from all political backgrounds overwhelmingly believe that putting our long-term debt on a sustainable path would improve economic opportunity and mobility, encourage businesses and entrepreneurs to create

Peter G. Peterson